BLUE AND GORDON FIGHT TEN HARD ROUNDS TO DRAW

Conditions were ideal yesterday for boxing and the card which was placed before the enthusiasts met with the approval of every person present.

The first event on the program was the flyweight championship bout between the "Tuffy" Anderson and "Kid" Blehn, both of Klamath Falls.

A semi-loving match followed between Kid North and Kid Hall in which Hall spent more time in re-arranging a pompadour than anything else.

Six rounds of mixing followed this event when Jack Burns and Kid "Cash" Travers mixed. Burns is a local aspirant for honors in the bantamweight class.

The main event on the card however was the 10 rounds staged between Babe Blue of Oakland and Sammy Gordon of Portland.

Gordon raised the fans to their feet by his clever headwork and especially when Blue forced him into the corners.

Two rounds of grueling, with no sleep at any period, and the teeth round with both men toe to toe-slaming in wicked hooks and straight punches.

The close of the card brought approval from every one present and with a similar card for today, there will be no fault to find with the boxing program for July 4th, 1921.

This afternoon the main event will be a ten round battle between Billy Huff of Chilcoquin and Joe Fox of Sacramento.

Bubbling over with the effervescence of youth and the joy of living, Constance Talmadge keeps the audience in a quiver of laughter all through "Up the Road With Sallie."

The part of Sallie, an irresponsible young girl thirsting for adventure, and ready to meet all in the race for a large fortune.

LOCALS WIN FROM DORRIS

There was a good bunch of baseball sports from Dorris yesterday and to say that they believe in good sportsmanship and clean playing is not enough—they demonstrated it yesterday and won the favor of the Klamath Falls fans by doing so.

Klamath Falls won the game by a score of 9 to 5 in a game that was noticeable for the number of hits. Dorris outbatted the locals by three hits collecting 14 to Klamath Falls 11.

Copcos Winners in Sunday's Contest

It seems that the Copcos have started on a trip to heaven—that is, baseball heaven, the top of the column and Sunday afternoon, took over the Plumbobs and showed them that they did not know anything about the game.

Ramsby, Brady and Moody each garnered a three base hit with Moody scoring two, and two base hits fell to Ramsby, Clark and Moody.

Fort Klamath Trims Local Nine, 14 to 9

There was a bunch of husky warriors from Klamath Falls who returned from Ft. Klamath trailing no "scalps" Saturday, insisted they returned home trailing their bats behind them with the much wanted victory resting on the totem pole of the agency team, 14 to 9.

Cross, Messner and Klahn all endeavored to stem the batters of the Ft. Klamath team but could not while Siemens for the agency team pitched a steady consistent game during the time he was on the mound for Ft. Klamath.

JERSEY CITY, July 5.—Jack Dempsey, who retained the world's championship title when he knocked out Georges Carpentier Saturday in the fourth round, plans to remain in this vicinity for several days before returning to his home at Salt Lake city for a rest.
